

As a very concerned citizen I'd like to ask the FCC to carefully consider lisence renewals etc. I think the precedent set by Sinclair Broadcasting is a frightening glimpse into the future. It illustrates how dangerous media consolidation can be when the public interest and trust is abandoned in favor of private interests.